

Inspection Engineer

Purpose

The Inspection Engineer is responsible for the processing of inspection data, the production of drawings and written reports and for ensuring a high quality end product for Bluestream clients.

Reports to

Head of Projects

Tasks and responsibilities

- Assist in interpreting client issued Scope of Work;
- Set up Datasheets and tracking sheets in accordance with the client issued Scope of Work;
- Set up recording system in accordance with the client issued Scope of Work;
- Process and review of inspection data for final reporting;
- Prepare final reports;
- Archive inspection data;
- Assist in offering onshore support during offshore campaigns;
- Assist the senior inspection engineer with tender support;
- Assist with any other duties as and when required;
- Responsible for compliance with SCC (VCA) and ISO standards.

In the absence of the Inspection Engineer, tasks will be undertaken by the Senior Inspection Engineer.

Authorities

All data and inspection activities within the boundaries of the company's guidelines as established in the authorization list, available at Finance.

Preferred qualifications

- Mid-level education degree (Level 4) or higher, preferably technical;
- Experience in project preparation and modern processing software (AutoCAD).
- Good command of the English language, spoken and written.
- Experience in the offshore industry is desirable.
- Experience in MS-Office.
- Good knowledge of compliance with industry (safety) standards and relevant legislation.
- SCC (VCA) certified or willing to obtain.
- CSWIP certified or willing to obtain.
- 1-3 years of relevant working experience in a similar position.

Preferred competencies

Bluestream core values

- Commitment
- Client Focus
- Innovation
- Integrity

Functional competencies

- Presenting and Communicating Information
- Writing and Reporting
- Analysing
- Learning and Researching
- Delivering Results and Meeting Customer Expectations
- Following Instructions and Procedures